

Simply put, I don't want solicitations via a telephone at my home and should have the right to block such marketing activities. I am currently on the do not call list and enjoy the fact that telemarketers do not call me.